

Please do not change the way the WI no-call list and related laws work. I pay for my phone line, and I do not see why that gives any businesses the right to call me to solicit for their products.